President's Message

Dear friends,

During this celebratory season, we will each keep our traditions and faith in many different ways. Please know, I personally will celebrate the contentment, peace and joy that family and your friendship gives me this holiday season.

In the spirit of celebration, there are many exciting club outings planned in the coming months. To kick off the holidays on December 2nd our annual Bunco celebration is scheduled. Family members are invited to play at this special gathering. Next, our holiday luncheon will be held at Stoneybrook Golf and Country Club with special gift drawings planned.

Mid-December arrives with a community-wide holiday trolley outing sponsored by the TR Young Families group and we've scheduled a neighborhood bike ride to enjoy the glow of holiday lights. January and February also present many learning and social occasions, such as Ukranian egg decorating. I hope to see you at these events.

Wishing you happy holidays and "warm season" greetings,
Cean

 Food bank donation collection at the January luncheon *****

All Faiths Food Bank Donations beginning January, 2023

Several years ago, one of our members- Julia Hendrickson- spearheaded the collection of items for All Faiths Food Bank at each of our luncheons. Diane Geramanis has now volunteered to take up the collection starting in January, 2023. We will do this on a 3-month trial.

Many of you are very kind hearted and have realized the cost of living has gone sky high. There are many people of all ages right here in our community that can't afford the basic necessities. I'm sure that if you bring only one item x 30-40 members it will go a long way towards helping others less fortunate than ourselves.

Questions? Please contact Diane Geramanis dgeramanis@me.com
