Presidents' Message

In ancient Greece and Rome, the “dog days of summer” were thought to be a time of drought, bad luck, and unrest, when dogs and men alike would be driven mad by the extreme heat. Can’t speak for the dogs and men but perhaps a little less heat and humidity would be welcomed. On the bright side, one benefit to these “dog days” is slowing down and enjoying the lazy pace of summer.

Nonetheless we will ease back into our regular routines and begin this new TRWC season with a delightful lunch at Apollonia’s on Wednesday, August 2nd. It will be great to see our friends again, share our summer stories and plan for new adventures. For those who are traveling or spending the summer up north or other desirable locations, please know that you are missed and we look forward to seeing you soon.

-Joan & Susan
