Article V
MEMBERS AND VOTING

The qualification of Members, the manner of their admission to membership and voting by Members shall be as follows:

A. The Membership of the Community Association shall be comprised of the Owners (owners other than Declarant are hereinafter sometimes collectively referred to as the "Owner Members"), including the Declarant. Membership shall be established as hereinafter set forth.

B. An Owner Member's membership shall be established effective immediately upon either (1) such Person's becoming an Owner of a unit; or (2) such Person's becoming an Owner of a Land Segment and upon such Land Segment being subject to Assessments as set forth in Paragraph 6.05(b) of the Community Declaration. The new Member shall present the Community Association with a copy of the recorded Warranty Deed or other muniments of title conveying the title to the Unit so conveyed. Membership shall pass with title to the Unit in question as an appurtenance thereto with no such membership or rights arising therefrom being transferable in any manner except as an appurtenance to such Unit.

C. Declarant's Membership in the Community Association shall be established effective immediately upon the creation of the Community Association, and until the establishment and effectiveness of any other Member's membership, the membership of the Community Association shall be comprised solely of Declarant.

D. A Structure for which final certificates of occupancy had been issued but which has subsequently been destroyed or demolished shall be deemed, for the purpose of calculating eligible votes, to have the number of Units which were contained in the original Structure until such time as a replacement Structure has been erected and a final certificate of occupancy issued therefor. Thereupon, the number of Units in the replacement Structure shall control in lieu of the number of Units so destroyed or demolished.

E. Voting Rights. The voting rights of the Members shall be as follows:

1. Number of Votes. Each Member shall possess the number of votes such Member is entitled to, as set forth in Article 5.02 of the Community Declaration.

2. Casting of Votes.

(a) Declarant. Declarant or the Person designated in Declarant's written proxy shall cast the votes possessed by Declarant as a Member at meetings of the Community Association. Nothing herein contained shall require that Declarant cast in the same manner all the votes he is entitled to cast as a Member, and Declarant may cast fewer than the total number of votes he possesses.

(b) Each Owner Member shall cast its vote(s) as a Member at meetings of the Community Association.

3. Person Entitled to Vote:

(a) The vote of Members owning a Unit owned by more than one natural person or by a corporation or other legal entity shall be cast by the person ("Voting Member") named in a proxy or certificate of voting authorization ("Certificate") executed by all of the owners of the Unit, or, if appropriate, by properly designated officers, partners or principals of the respective legal entity and filed with the Secretary of the Community Association. If such a proxy or Certificate is not filed with the Secretary of the Community Association, the vote of such Unit shall not be considered for a quorum or for any other purpose.

(b) Whenever any Unit is owned by a husband and wife they may, but shall not be required to, designate a Voting Member. In the event a proxy or Certificate designating a Voting Member is not filed by the husband and wife, the following provisions shall govern their right to vote:

(i) Where both husband and wife are present at a meeting, each shall be regarded as the agent and proxy of the other for purposes of casting the vote for each Unit owned by them. In the event they are unable to concur in their decision upon any subject requiring a vote, they shall lose their right to vote on that subject at that meeting.

(ii) Where only one (1) spouse is present at a meeting, the spouse present may cast their vote without establishing the concurrence of the other spouse, absent any prior written notice to the contrary to the Community Association by the other spouse. In the event of prior written notice to the contrary to the Community Association by the other spouse, the vote of their Unit shall not be considered.

(iii) Where neither spouse is present, the person designated in a proxy or Certificate signed by either spouse may cast their vote, absent any prior written notice to the contrary to the Community Association by the other spouse or the designation of a different Voting Member by the other spouse. In the event of prior written notice to the contrary to the Community Association or the designation of a different Voting Member by the other spouse, the vote of their Unit shall not be considered.

F. Each and every Member shall be entitled to the benefits of membership, and shall be bound to abide by the provisions of the Turtle Rock Documents.

Article VI

Article VII

The name and street address of the Incorporator of the Community Association is as follows:

B. The names and street addresses of the persons who are to serve as the First Board are as follows:

The First Board shall be the Board until the first Annual Members Meeting after the Transfer Date. Declarant shall have the right to appoint, designate or elect the members of the First Board until the first Annual Members' Meeting after the Transfer Date, and in the event of any vacancy, to fill any such vacancy. Declarant reserves the right to remove from the First Board any Governors it designates or elects.

C. 1. At the first Annual Members' Meeting after the Transfer Date, and at all Annual Members' Meetings thereafter, the number of Governors shall be increased to five (5). In addition, after the Transfer Date and for so long as Declarant owns any interest in the Total Lands, Declarant shall have the right, but not the obligation, to designate one additional Governor and his/her successors ("Declarant Governor").

2. 3. Any Governors named by Declarant shall serve at the pleasure of Declarant, and in the event of vacancies of such Governors, such vacancies shall be filled by Declarant. The fact that the Owners have not elected or refuse to elect Governors shall not interfere with the right of Governors designated by Declarant to resign.

D. The resignation of a Governor who has been designated, appointed or elected by Declarant, or the resignation of an officer of the Community Association who was elected by the First Board, shall remise, release, acquit, and forever discharge such Governor or officer of and from any and all manner of action(s), cause(s) of action, suits, debts, dues, claims, bonds, bills, covenants, contracts, controversy, agreements, promises, variances, trespasses, damages, judgments, executions, claims and demands whatsoever, in law or in equity which the Community Association or Members had, now have, or will have; or which any personal representative, successor, heir or assign of the Community Association or Members hereafter may have against such Governor or officer by reason of his having been a Governor or officer of the Community Association.

Every Governor and every officer of the Community Association shall be indemnified by the Community Association against all expenses and liabilities, including attorneys' fees through all trial and appellate levels, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding, arbitration or settlement to which he may be a party, or in which he may become involved, by reason of his being or having been a Governor or officer of the Community Association, whether or not he is a Governor or officer at the time such expenses are incurred. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a settlement, the indemnification provisions herein shall not be automatic and shall apply only when the Board approves such settlement. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, in instances where the Governor or officer admits or is adjudged guilty of willful malfeasance in the performance of his duties, the indemnification provisions contained herein shall not apply. Otherwise, the foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any and all of indemnification to which such Governor or officer may be entitled by common law or statute.

Article XI BY-LAWS

By-Laws of the Community Association shall be adopted by the First Board and thereafter may be altered, amended or rescinded in the manner provided for in the By-Laws. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of these Articles and the provisions of the By-Laws, the provisions of these Articles shall control.

Article XII AMENDMENTS

A. These Articles may be amended by the following methods:

1. (a) The Board shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of Members, which may be either the Annual Members' Meeting or a special meeting. Any number of proposed amendments may be submitted to the Members and voted upon by them at one meeting.

(b) Written notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given to each Member within the time and in the manner provided in the By-Laws for the giving of notice of meetings of Members ("Required Notice").

(c) At such meeting a vote of the Members shall be taken on the proposed amendment(s). The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of all Members entitled to vote thereon.

2. An amendment may be adopted by a written statement (in lieu of a meeting) signed by all Governors and all Owners setting forth their intention that an amendment to these Articles be adopted.

B. A copy of each amendment shall be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida and a certified copy shall be obtained by the secretary.

C. A certified copy of each such amendment shall be attached to any certified copy of these Articles and shall be part of such Articles and an exhibit to the Community Declaration upon the recording of the Community Declaration; or, in lieu thereof, "Restated Articles" (as described in Article XIV below) may be adopted and a certified copy thereof shall be attached as an exhibit to the Community Declaration upon recordation thereof.

D. There shall be no amendment to these Articles which shall abridge, amend or alter the rights of: (i) Declarant, including the right to designate and select the Governors as provided in Article VIII hereof and the rights reserved to Declarant in the Community Declaration, without the prior written consent thereto by Declarant; (ii) any Institutional Mortgagees without the prior written consent of such Institutional Mortgagees. No amendment may be made to these Articles which shall in any manner reduce, amend, affect or modify the terms, conditions, provisions, rights and obligations set forth in the Community Declaration.

Article XIII
SUCCESSOR ENTITIES

In the event of the dissolution of the Community Association or any successor entity thereto, any property dedicated or conveyed to the Community Association shall be transferred to either a successor entity or an appropriate governmental agency or public body to be maintained for the purposes for which the Community Association, or a successor thereto, was maintaining such property in accordance with the terms and provisions under which such property was being held by this Community Association or such successor.

Article XIV
RESTATEMENT OF ARTICLES

A. All provisions contained within these Articles plus any amendments thereto may at any time be integrated into a single instrument as "Restated Articles" and adopted by the Board. Such Restated Articles shall be specifically designated as such and shall state, either in the heading or in the introductory paragraph, the Community Association's name and, if it has been changed, the name under which it was originally incorporated and the date of filing of the original Articles or any restatements thereof in the Office of the Secretary of State of Florida. Such Restated Articles shall also state that they were duly adopted by the Board and that such Restated Articles only restate and integrate and do not further amend the provisions of these Articles as theretofore amended, or that any amendment included therein has been adopted pursuant to Article XII hereof and that there is no discrepancy between these Articles as theretofore amended and provisions of the Restated Articles other than the inclusion of the properly adopted amendments.

B. Upon the filing of Restated Articles by the Secretary of State of Florida, the original Articles, as theretofore amended, shall be superseded, and thenceforth the Restated Articles shall be these Articles of Incorporation of the Community Association.

C. Amendments may be made simultaneously with restatement of these Articles if the requirements of Article XII are complied with. In such event, the Articles of Incorporation shall be specifically designated as such.
