GREEN TEAM EVENT AT THE GLENRIDGE

Many from the Sarasota area have enjoyed the peace and beauty of Oscar Scherer State Park. If you have been a visitor, you may wonder how this wonderful oasis constantly improves as a place where wildlife thrives and where human visitors enjoy the natural environment. The Glenridge Green Team invites you to hear two experts on this subject. Tony Clements, the manager of Oscar Scherer State Park, and his wife, Katherine Clements, the Ecology and Natural Resources Educator for UF/IFAS Extension – Sarasota County will share their knowledge and experiences at the November Glenridge Green Team meeting. Tony Clements will focus on his efforts to continuously improve and maintain the park. Katherine Clements will focus on invasive plant species, a continuous challenge for the park and for Sarasota County.

This free event will take place on Tuesday, November 12th at 10:30am in the theatre at the Glenridge on Palmer Ranch, 7333 Scotland Way. The public is welcome. Please contact Susan Button at susanvinalbutton@gmail.com with any questions about this event.

NEW CANAAN SOCIETY

PRESENTS

AN EVENING ON
FORGIVENESS AND RECONCILIATION

FEATURING
REV. ANTHONY THOMPSON

On June 17, 2015 Dylann Roof, a 21-year-old White supremacist, murdered nine African Americans at the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston, SC. Rev. Anthony Thompson's wife, Myra, was leading a Bible Study that night and lost her life.

AND
MS. POLLY SHEPPARD

Ms. Polly Sheppard was one of only two adult survivors of the shooting. After witnessing the brutal murder of her friends, Roof approached and asked, "Have I shot you yet?" He told her would let her live to tell the story.

Two days later, Rev. Thompson, Ms. Polly and other suffering families stunned the world when they faced Dylann Roof and offered him forgiveness.
